Where we collect information about you from

The majority of personal information we get directly from you and your activities as a programme member but we may also collect personal information from other sources, namely: 1) Leicester Tigers, 2) our Programme Partners; and 3) social media channels such as Facebook, Google and Twitter.

Do you share my data with other organisations?

Our role is to provide you with the services connected to your membership of the Tigers ROARwards programme.

The principal party with whom we may share your personal information is Leicester Tigers itself. We do this to ensure you get the full benefit of the Tigers ROARwards programme and also to enable Leicester Tigers to better understand your preferences in terms of engagement with Tigers ROARwards and Leicester Tigers, including transactional activity and engagement with other Leicester Tigers channels eg the newsletter, app, social and website. Where we share your personal information with Leicester Tigers, it will process your personal information as a controller in accordance with the terms of its own privacy statement which can be found here.

More generally, we only share your personal information with others if:

- you ask us to or give us your permission to share it;
- it is necessary to track the transactions and collection of Tigers ROARwards points through Leicester Tigers, our Retail Partners or our other Programme Partners;
- it is necessary to enable us (or trusted third parties, such as Google, Inc. ("Google")) to analyse how our website is being used by members and to optimise and improve the Tigers ROARwards website and our services;
- this is necessary for trusted third parties (for example, a data management and profiling organisation such as Experian) to match your personal information against other information they hold about you - such as age, gender, demographic information, and known interests – and provide that information to us to help us provide the services and improve your experience with the Tigers ROARwards programme; or
- we engage in a corporate activity, such as a sale, transfer, merger or re-organisation of the Rewards4 business (including Tigers ROARwards).

In exceptional circumstances, we may share your information without your permission if we reasonably believe you might be breaking the law, for example on hate speech, and such disclosure is allowed under the relevant laws, including Data Protection law.

When we share your data outside of Tigers ROARwards we will:

- always share it in a secure way; and
- not permit it to be used for third party marketing purposes.

We also collect, use and share aggregated data such as statistical or demographic data for any purpose. Aggregated data could be derived from your personal data but is not considered personal data in law as this data will not directly or indirectly reveal your identity. For example, we may aggregate data on your usage of the Tigers ROARwards programme to calculate the percentage of members accessing a specific feature. However, if we combine or connect aggregated data with your personal data so that it can directly or indirectly identify you, we treat the combined data as personal data which will be used in accordance with this privacy policy.

In some circumstances we will anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes, in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

How do you personalise the experience that I have with the Tigers ROARwards programme?

We may use your online browsing behaviour as well as details of your online transactions and engagement activities with Leicester Tigers, with our Retail Partners or with our other Programme Partners which will help us better understand you as a member, provide you with personalised offers and services and help us to better meet your needs as a member.

Will I be contacted for marketing purposes?

As you may expect, we tailor the communications that you receive based on information and preferences that you have previously provided (such as your favourite retailers) and based on your activities on the Tigers ROARwards website, through our Mobile App or on the Points Reminder while signed-in. This is so that we can give you the most relevant and rewarding experience with the programme.

We want to ensure that we provide you with relevant marketing communications relating to the programme and our products and services, as well as those of Leicester Tigers, our Retail Partners and other Programme Partners. To achieve this, we may measure the effectiveness of our marketing communications as well as your responses to marketing communications relating to products and services we offer.

Advertising

We may also use your information to provide you with targeted advertising through our website or through third party websites based on information we have collected concerning your preferences.

Some third party websites allow you to request not to see messages and communications from specific advertisers on their website. Please contact these third parties directly if you would like to make that request or if you need more information.

Will my information be held outside United Kingdom?

Your personal information may be transferred internationally. Sometimes we will need to transfer your information out of the United Kingdom, for example, where we work with Google or Facebook to provide you with targeted advertising through our website or through third party websites.

Whenever we do transfer your personal data out of the United Kingdom, we ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards is implemented:

- We will only transfer your personal data to countries that have been deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data.
- Where we use certain service providers, we may use specific contracts approved for use in the UK which give personal data the same protection it has in the UK.

Please contact us if you want information on the specific mechanism used by us when transferring your personal data out of the United Kingdom.

Can I change or delete my data?

You can amend the information we hold on you by logging into your account and visiting the 'My Profile' page.

To request for your account to be deleted, you can do this by visiting our Help Centre.

If you choose to close your account, this will erase any personal information that we hold about you. It will mean that any data about how you've used Tigers ROARwards will be made anonymous, and any data that has enabled you to collect points will also be anonymised and archived.

Please bear in mind though, once you request to close your account (and have your details deleted), you will lose any points that you have collected should you wish to re-open your account at a later date.

How long will you keep my data for?

Tigers ROARwards will only hold your personal information on our systems for as long as is reasonably necessary for the purposes of providing the services to you (and/or as set out in the Tigers ROARwards Member Agreement)

If you ask for your Tigers ROARwards account to be closed, then your personal information will be deleted from our systems.
